About Mumbai

Mumbai, the capital city of Maharashtra is called the “city of dreams” or “Mayanagri”. Mumbai is the financial, commercial and the entertainment capital of India. It is built on seven islands: Isle of Bombay, Parel, Mazagaon, Mahim, Colaba, Worli, and Old Woman's Island (also known as Little Colaba). Mumbai's culture offers a blend of traditional and cosmopolitan festivals, food, entertainment, and night life. The city's cosmopolitan and urban-centric modern cultural offerings are comparable to other world capitals. The city is also home to Bollywood and Marathi cinema industries. Mumbai's business opportunities attract migrants from all over India.

Marine Drive situated on reclaimed land facing west-south-west, also known as the Queen's Necklace as the street lights resemble a string of pearls in a necklace when viewed from elevated point.

About Matunga

Matunga formed a part of the seven original islands of Mumbai with Mahim, then known as Mahikavati. It is said that the King of Mahikavati had his elephant stables in Matunga, and that the name Matunga was derived from "Matanga", the Sanskrit word for Elephant. Matunga was among the first well planned localities of Mumbai. The Dadar-Matunga-Wadala-Sion plan was formulated to evenly distribute population as well as provide better living standards.

Matunga has a colourful flower market, especially known for the south Indian essence with Madras malli and Bangalore malli flowers that come from Tamil Nadu and rajamalli, mogra, champa, chameli and marigold, sourced from Vasai- Virar.

Matunga has numerous temples, namely, the Astika Samajam, the South Indian Bhajan Samaj, Sri Sankara Matham, Sri Kanyaka Parmeshwari Temple, The Church of Mary, Help of Christians (also known as Don Bosco Church), the Jain temples in Kings Circle and the Marubai Temple.

How to reach Matunga: - Matunga is well connected by road, rail and air with other cities of Maharashtra. Visanji Ravji Auditorium, Shree Ravji Jivraj Changdaiwala Hall in Matunga East, Mumbai is about 2.5 kms away from the Matunga railway station, the Mumbai airport is about 15 kms from the venue. These are the lines and routes that have stops nearby –

TRAINED NURSES ASSOCIATION OF INDIA. MAHARASHTRA STATE BRANCH.

The Trained Nurses' Association of India (TNAI) had its beginning in the Association of Nursing Superintendents which was founded in 1905, Lucknow (UP, India), composed of nine European Nurses holding administrative posts in hospitals. Like their counterparts in other countries, this small band of women was imbued with vision and a pioneering spirit. They saw the need to develop nursing as a profession and also to provide a forum where professional nurses could meet and plan to achieve these ends. The movement gathered momentum and in 1908, a decision was taken to establish the Trained Nurses' Association with the objective of:

1. Upholding in every way the dignity and honour of Nursing profession
2. Promoting a sense of esprit de corps among all Nurses
3. To advance professional, educational, economic and general welfare of nurses

The Trained Nurses' Association of India, Maharashtra State Branch is one of the active branches of the Country. State office is at C-2/15/03 Geetanjali Apartments. Near Vashi Fire Brigade. Sector-16 Vashi, Navi Mumbai-400703.

SMES, SMT. SUNANDA PRAVIN GAMBHIRCHAND
INSTITUTE OF NURSING & PARA-MEDICAL SCIENCES MATUNGA, Mumbai (B+ 2.74 NAAC Accredited College)

Seva Mandal Education Society (SMES) is a Gujarati minority institution, which has been a pioneer in providing qualitative educational facilities to girl students ever since it began in 1957 with just seven students. The campus which is located in the central suburb of Matunga today hosts eight institutions with around 6000 female students. We offer every educational opportunity ranging from Junior college to undergraduate programs postgraduate programs and short-term certificate courses in faculties of Arts, Commerce, Home Science, Computer Applications, Management, Mass Media, Law and Nursing.

Under the umbrella of Seva Mandal Education Society, Smt. Sunanda Pravin Gambhirchand Institute of Nursing and Paramedical Sciences, currently has College of Nursing and ANM School of Nursing and paramedical skill development certificate courses. The college is affiliated to “Maharashtra University of Health Sciences, Nashik” and recognized by Indian Nursing Council, Maharashtra Nursing Council and Maharashtra State Board of Nursing and Paramedical Education. The ANM School of Nursing started in the year 2007 and College of Nursing was founded in 2012. The institute strives to provide all round development of students and beneficial care to society at large.

Our vision statement is the “Empowerment of Women through Quality in Education”. We take great pride in sharing that three of our lead colleges (Smt. MMP Shah Women's College of Arts & Commerce and Dr. B. M. N. College of Home Science and Smt. Sunanda Pravin Gambhirchand College of Nursing) are NAAC accredited colleges. The former two colleges have received the unique honour of "College with Potential for Excellence“ (CPE) from the University Grants Commission (UGC) in 2016. While Dr. BMN College was adjudged as "Best College for 2016-2017” by SNDT Women's University, Smt. MMP Shah College received this prestigious award from the University for 2017-2018. Dr. BMN College of Home Science and Smt. M.M.P. Shah Women's College were among the few prestigious colleges across Mumbai to receive Autonomous Status. Dr. BMN College is recipient of the prestigious Enhancing Quality & Excellence in Select Autonomous Colleges Scheme from RUSA. The Sunanda Pravin Gambhirchand College of Nursing received much appreciation and recognition for the selfless service by its staff and students to the community during the COVID-19 Pandemic. The Institution seeks to make qualitative contribution to health care through training personnel who are dedicated to the health sector

Theme of Conference: - “Invest in Nursing for Global Health

COVID-19 has brought to light the extraordinary nature of what nurses can do inspite facing unique stressors related to the pandemic in the provision of innovative, person-centred care with expertise, courage, compassion, and dedication. The well-being of nurses is integrally tied to the health systems in which they work and to the strength of the profession in advocating for conditions that promote quality care. “Now is the time for countries to introduce, increase and grow nurse-led models of care. Nursing is the golden thread that links healthcare policies and practices. It holds the solution to many of the healthcare problems the world is facing.

The conference will be a fine blend of professional enrichment which will be facilitated by Scientific paper presentations, poster presentations, panel discussions, quiz and elocution competition. The feather in the cap of this conference is felicitation of our nurses who have been working selflessly with dedication and who are the role models for upcoming generations.
